About Nick

Nick Sinclair is a visionary Australian entrepreneur dedicated to revolutionizing the accounting industry. As the founder of TOA Global, Ab2 Institute of Accounting, Topfirm, and Humanverse Group, Nick has built a remarkable company which he has grown from zero to $100 million in ten years. Although independent from one another, his thriving businesses collectively contribute to attaining a common goal: enabling accounting firms and professionals to grow, thrive, and succeed.

Leveraging his experience of running his own accounting and financial planning firm, Nick coaches owners, partners, and other top-level leaders of high-performing accounting firms around the world. Today, he is one of the foremost authorities on offshore accounting and building global teams. In Nick's mission to help accounting firm owners run a smarter and more successful practice, he is dedicated to providing an authentic and practical perspective to getting the best out of your people and building an accounting firm that you can be proud to lead.
